BARRINGER HIGH SCHOOL
NEWARK, NEW JERSEY

NOW LOOK HERE!

Now look here! Yes, right here! I've got something to show you graduates. Yes-sir, I've been around a long, long time, even though I don't show it . . . do I?

I'd like to beg your pardon for shouting, but it was the only way to catch your eye. You see, I'm Mr. Barringer. I'm a little old-fashioned perhaps, but I've seen some things you've never seen. I thought I'd show you Newark and Barringer as I've seen them, so you young whippersnappers will know that we had a mighty nice town even before you were born. I dug up a few old battered pictures and drawings from my desk, and, by throwing my weight around, managed to get those yearbook people to print them. Most of them are kind of old 'cause I like to reminisce a little. But remember this, even though I've been around awhile, I'm still in good shape, and I still can do the Charleston and Black Bottom. So you just sit in that chair there and I'll bring out those pictures.

Dedication

Now
Here
In the H-bomb hour,
In these troubled days
When the dull rumble of drums shakes the air,
When hearts heaped high with worldly worries
Grove for truth in lies,
This cry we raise:
That we who lie waiting . . .
Waiting in the hurricane's eye
May feel again the surge of hope within;
That we the crystal-minded,
With youth's bright flame to kindle us,
May by lucid thought
And hope in virgin deed
Return again.
Return again
Home
Where our Father's forgiving hand
Which ripped darkness from light,
Made the stars to blaze,
May soothe us,
May mend us
His children who are
In His image
And bring us
To quiet air,
Quiet minds,
To peace in our time.

CLASS SONG

Music By Peter Givens

Words By Doreen Cole

Since For Ty Six Dear Bar-rin-aer You've Taught Us Right From Wrong And
As A To-ken of Our Love We Leave To You This Song To Night We Stand Two Hund-red Strong, In Gowns Of Blue And White Let Us Hope We'll E'er Re-call Your Pledge Of Honor Truth And Light, We Think Of All The Fun We've Had And Of The Troub-les Too And
Of The Friends We Can't For-get Be-cause They're Part Of You.

The musical score is written on a single staff with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The melody is simple and melodic, with a mix of eighth and quarter notes. The lyrics are written below the staff, with some words hyphenated across lines. The song ends with a double bar line.

Class History

In the fall of 1946 we came
Somewhat startled and puzzled
By our new-found freedom.
We had more thinking to do for ourselves.
It was a tough struggle, our first year.
Now Occupations and Miss Driscoll's Health class are all but forgotten.
We stayed, most of us, in the same gangs we had been with in grammar school
Some . . . some were making new friends, friends they'll never forget, friends who talked about that cute fellow, and that new gown that Suzy had.
We were afraid of some of the teachers.
That's all forgotten.
It's all a haze now.
A bright shining haze.

By the second year we knew of
Gyp slips, cut slips, gym slips and slips of the tongue.
Sometimes the latter hurt.
You were sensitive.
Ambition took root.
Some set their sights on coveted positions,
Some on good-looking blondes,

Some on a varsity position.
Remember the awe we felt for the seniors?
The seniors would display their Trig books
As if they contained some secret Cabala,
Remember your first high school dance,
The flutter in your stomach,
The hot, burning blushes?
Remember when you held that great party
That tore the roof down?
Remember the eagerness you felt to see the beginning
Of the football season?
The bitterness of heart when we lost,
The surge of pride when we won?
And that report card, wow,
You never figured a B from McLaughlin.

In the Junior year the ambitious ones
Found their spot in the sun.
Lo Giudice was elected Student Council president
The friendly disputes were soon resolved.
Ciccolini launched our class organization.
John Nerres, Helen Thomas, Al Rapuano and many others eagerly pitched in.
McCracken, Christman, and Sigler were Acropolis
editors.
Berman was jack-of-all trades.
But the year's most important event was our Disc Social
Remember how hard we had to work to sell tickets?
It was fun, though.
It was fun hanging decorations
It was fun to see us raking in money for the class.

Some of us had tucked in our wallets
Pictures we proudly displayed to the accompaniment of "Oh, what a doll," "Is he cute," "Some dish."

You didn't like those extra-long exam periods.
The exam periods were an experiment and you felt like suffering guinea pigs.

The long lunch period was a thing of the past.

There were protests.

But no one suffered.

The Junior year ended on the hot sands
Of Rye Beach

Where we took those awful pictures with our hair
all dripping wet

Or those pictures that showed you with your chest expanded Tarzan-like.

We were tired

We needed that summer vacation.

In the Senior year

We chose Joe Ciccolini president, Jimmy Furey vice-president, Helen Thomas secretary and Pat
Meola treasurer.

We were a long way from our jitterbugging past.

We did a sophisticated fox trot and waltz.

We learned that tricky rhumba step.

We held our Horror-Hop.

Remember you got the car that night?

That skit advertising the dance!

Nerres was a fiend.

We still smart from the defeat the Faculty gave us.

We still smile at the young cheerleaders, McLaughlin and Foley.

Remember you broke off with the fellow you had met during the summer?

Remember the strike, the ugly blot which shall forever be a black name on our class?

We'd like to forget it.

It's not easy to forget your mistakes.

Remember the fight over the rings?

We all went to Mr. Rubinfeld to see it, to touch it, to admire or condemn it

We had to dig into our pockets.

Dues to pay, pictures, rings to buy.

College was in sight, your job was near.

You worried

And pondered.

In January, our 4B team defeated the 4A's.

We planned the "Windy Whirl."

Like all our other events, it was a success.

Remember the popularity vote?

Remember what Suzy told Mary told you?

Remember your beating heart when you got your diploma?

You'll never forget.

These past four years will always remain

A happy memory.

Prophecy

We of the class of June 1950
Know a southsayer of sorts
He lives in a cave or something
All he does is sit and sooth
We tried "truth serum" but he's a habitual liar
We tried "grilling" him
But he is easily burnt up Forsooth here is his sooth, the sooth and nothing but the sooth.

In the place of Barringer's crumbling walls I see Plastic walls built by Batterson, Inc.
"Boss" Rapaano, mayor of Rapsburg (formerly New ark)
Will be digging up zombies (Jerry Inneo, etc.) to vote for him
Judy "Portia" Battista will be defending the city
Against the attacks of "Honest" Tony Lo Gooch,
Teacher and professional wrestler
Jimmy Morehead will be having troubles Moving the Bank of America (Morehead National Trust) to Rapsburg
I see Christman being dusted off
So he won't get dusty in his retirement
Mike Ricci will be writing "Young Man With a Six

of Pete Giovane
me," "Quick," and "Slow" will be bought out by Editor Bill Berman
Dolores "Florence Nightingale" Cole will be curing
Charlie Ascone
Of an injury he sustained when he rammed a buoy
While trying to beat the world's speedboat record
June Caciarelli will come in to visit him with her little black bag followed by Muriel Altonso, etc.

Ron Rathje will be trying to save the soul of Angelo Casarola, the Bohemian artist
Hilda Barrett, Lilyan Sasso, Freda Schneck, Jean
Blakely, Cathy Destefano, Joe Doidan,
Gary Fabiano, Florence Harp, Tony LoGiudice and Lorraine Piccatello
Will form the nucleus of Barringer University
Which will teach grade school, high school, and college in one month
Margaret Restaino will be assistant to John Nerres,
Head of the New Jersey Dental Association
Angelo Molinare will print "Esquire," "The Daily
News," and the "Yale Review"
When Joe DiMaggio is too old, Jo Corbo will be his retriever in centerfield
Mike Cletts will broadcast the Yankees' victories
Mary Ann Mendicino will be the mainstay of John

Robert Powers

Policewoman Marie Julian will nab Joe Cacioline who will successfully defend his own case
Paul Gethard will put forth a "Theory of Cousins,"
A modification of the "Theory of Relativity."
Man-of-the-world Keith Massey will get so bored with Earth
He will fly to Mars to visit Jay S. er's Green Men
In the far, far future when all the good people of
B. H. S.
Are laid under six feet of earth
When their nebulous souls float upwards toward Heaven
Who will open the Pearly Gates but Mort Rich
Who will tap dance all over Heaven but "Pokey" Wright?
And who of the angels will call out the lists of golden names, but Owen Farley?
The angels will pass out brand-new chromatic harps invented by Jack Young
Frank DeNegris and Concetta Iannacone will dance
To the music of Ruth McCracken at her solid gold piano
Mr. Argand will lead the Celestial Chorus
Tony Scalera, Margaret Restaino, and Dolores
Compte will sing honey-toned songs
Joanne Rodman and Doris Flatley will be painting rainbows in the heavenly art shop.
Theresa Guarino will arrange the layout
for the 11 girls section of the Eternal Yearbook
While Mildred Mauriello, Joan Armstrong, and Lois
Addesso
Forego their ambrosia and nectar to type celestial copy

All the 1950 graduates will march through the gates
As they marched to their graduation—
Happily and Eagerly

As the season was set at the 1949 football season blew, it looked as if the Big Blue of Bannockburn was the probable City Champions in 1950. As the season advanced the experts who had been predicting that the Blue so highly were proved to be mistaken as the other teams improved with each game. One of the team's first defeats was suffered at the hands of Montclair, one of the Co-State Champions. The most sad thing of the season was against West Orange as the Cowboys rolled to a 41-0 victory. The lone Blue tally of the game came on a pass from Jerry Oliveri to Joe Ciccolini in the second quarter.

A mediocre season was brought to a close with the annual Turkey Day Classic against East Orange. In this game as the record indicated, the boys played terrible ball before bowing to the Panthers.

As a climax to the season, Jimmy Furey was picked for the first team on the All City and the All Essex eleven at Center. He later was awarded a berth on the third All State eleven. In general, all the boys from varsity down really played to the best of their ability, and may we the Class of June 1950 extend to them our thanks for a good job.

Opening his fifth year at the helm of the Big Blue quintet, Coach Joe Nerenberg hoped that he could floor the new League Champs, but things just didn't pan out the right way. With only one member of last year's first team, Jeffro Daniels, returning for a full season, Nerenberg had to bring up some of his second stringers and J.V.'s. The latter really did a better job than expected, although, as the record shows, they bogged down just when they should have been on the top. Perhaps the highlight of the entire season came at the Panthers' home court in E. O. Starting the second half with a deficit of six points, the Blue really poured on the steam to win 48-45 on a last second lay-up by Jeff Daniels. Again inviting Lady Luck, the boys drew an invitation to play Nutley High in the elimination round of the Essex County Tournament. They couldn't get going and lost 55-31 on the neutral Bloomfield High court.

In a round-up of the season's play it wouldn't be fair to forget Ted Kerekes, who came up at mid-season to play center; Howie Beauchamp, Teddy's insurance man; captain Don Schroeder, ever-jumping guard; Arnie Williams and Jeffro Daniels, both of whom played terrific games both outside and underneath; and last of all, Al Plausic with his crazy under-handed head-twisting lay-ups.

Tony Coppola

Ending their 1949 season by tying South Side for second place in the City League, the Big Blue Bombers, better known as the Barringer Baseball Squad, opened its 1950 season in great style. The boys, under the direction of Sam Sedicino, pulled something that, in the past few years, has been nearly impossible. During their annual visit to Woodman Field the boys managed a neat one-run victory over the Mounties, 4-3.

Following the Mounties the boys opened their City League schedule by again pulling the impossible and defeating Central. Following this, the boys bowed to Kearny as Mr. "Sed" gave the second team a much needed work-out. The Bombers next met East Side, which, in all probability, is the only obstacle between the team and the championship. Behind the pitching of Don Velardi and the booming bats of Tony Coppola and "Dan Boone" De Santis the boys came out on the good side of a 3-1 count.

As we go to press, we can only wish them the best of luck and hope that they can achieve their goals, the City League Championship and the Greater Newark Tournament.

TRACK AND CROSS COUNTRY

Probably least known of all Barringer sports are Track and Cross-Country. It is in these two sports that the Big Blue can really show off.

In Cross-Country, the boys, under the able direction of Mr. Allen, were able to take third place in the city and seventh in the state. Among the stars of the team were Jeff Daniels, Charlie Triquet, and Pete Pisauo with Charlie Garland as manager.

Turning to the trackmen, we have the City Champs in our midst. With Mr. "Nap" returning for this third year as coach, we have a pair of City titles. Helping Mr. "Nap" out are "Pokey" Wright and George Troublefield at the hurdles, Ron Jones at the high jump, Arnie Williams and Pete Pisauo in the distance events, and Frank Hooks as manager.

FENCING TEAM

Many years ago men dueled for a lady's smile . . . Twenty-six years ago, Barringer added fencing to its long list of sports, not for a fight to the finish for a lady's smile, but for the spoils that go to the victor in any of our modern athletic encounters.

Big Blue fencers have won these spoils more times than there are words on this page since the days of chivalry. The most recent of the great victories came in 1949 when the team of Primamore, Zimmerman and Smith took first, second and seventh places in individual competition in addition to the newly instituted New Jersey State Championship. In the fifty season the team got under way with nine straight wins but the foot fell in as the team lost two important meets. The entire first team graduated passing the burden up to the scrubs, led by John Nerres. This group did a fine job considering their limited experience. We can now only hope that they will be able to take the State meet next year.

GIRLS' ATHLETICS

They made it! "1200 points, you must agree, is a tremendous amount," is a favorite saying of Miss Secretary. The girls question the secretary's statement: "How do the girls earn their points? There are several ways of accomplishing this feat. Their rating in gym class, marks of A and B; posture; gym costume preparation; perfect attendance; and participation in extracurricular sports, give credit toward a letter."

The graduating "B" Girls are Muriel Alfonso, Gloria Allocca, Jean Blakely, Wilma Boyer, Dolores Cole, Eleanor Coppola, Josephine Corbo, Ruth Curley, Catherine De Stefano, Theresa Guarino, Concetta Iannaccone, Helen La Morte, Dolores Malanga, Patsy Morone, Ruth McCracken, Marie Mosley, Mary Ann Mosley, Mildred Mosley, Viola Mosley, Margaret Restaino, Lilyan Sasso, Freda Schneck, Doris Seltzer, Marie Soriano, Marie Tambascia, Helen Thomas, Rose Torsuello, Jacqueline Ussery.

CHEERLEADERS AND TWIRLERS

The busy stepping and cheering of our graduating cheerleaders and majorettes will be missed next season. These eight cheerleaders spurred the crowds on even when the team was behind. Their motto was, "Whether win or lose, no use crying the blues, because we'll do it the Barringer way."

These proud majorettes were among the first to don the uniform of Barringer's twirlers. These crowd-pleasing girls with their nimble fingers and high strutting will be a great loss to Barringer.

Both squads are about to leave the playing fields as performers, but they will be back as enthusiastic spectators.

Lots of luck in the future Mami Albach
and Reg. P. and Co.

and having you as a faithful friend!

I know you'll attain that goal - as a rising young "secretary" for your ambitions and enthusiasms never falter.

May your path be lightened with stars at each crossroad.

Love,
"Maria"

Just a Minute . . .

Now look here again. I bet you weren't watching me much all this time. I guess you were too busy remembering and reliving your days in Barringer. Well, remembering's my stock in trade. I had just intended showing you a few old pictures, but somehow I got caught up in your activities.

I thought before you closed the book, I'd speak a few words. Maybe I've got preacher blood in me, but I just can't keep from telling you this

If you can keep up your Barringer spirit of eager cooperation and active interest, and carry it into later life, you'll be doing Newark and Barringer a great service. You'll be adding to the Barringer tradition of turning out good citizens and making me "real gone proud," as you say, of the Class of June 1950.

Now that I've got all that off my chest, I think I'll go back among my musty books and "chicken inspector" badges, and wait till the class of 2000 comes along, and all of you have taken your place in the world

Good-bye,
Good luck,
God bless you,

Mr. Barringer
